

REPEAL ASSOCIATION.

Detroit-25th July, 1844

To Daniel O'Donnell, Esq. M.P.

Sir--The Detroit repealers beg leave respectfully to accompany their address by a mite of contribution towards the fine imposed on you, and solicit the favour of being allowed to participate in its payment. They would remit more largely, but are aware that others will also claim a like privilege. I am directed therefore to send you £20, and to solicit your acceptance of it towards the above object. We lately send 100/., to the Repeal Association, and within the past year another sum of 55/. Should there be any objection to our present request on your part or otherwise, we beg of you to apply it at your own discretion.

I have the honour, Sir, to be your humble servant.

H.H. Emmons,

Corres. Sec. Detroit Repeal Association.

St. Michael's Parish. Limerick.

We, the undersigned, request a meeting of the parishioners of St. Michael, at the vestry room, to make arrangements for the effective collection of our annual debt to our beloved Liberator and Martyr. (Daniel O'Connell). Never was there a time when it was more necessary to prove our unalterable attachment to the Great Leader than the present:-we therefore are certain that every lover of his native land will be prompt in his exertions on this occasion.

11-9-1840 Mullinavat, Co. Kilkenny.

Earlsrath, 3rd Sept. 1840.

The parishioners of Mullinavat, in the County Kilkenny, having resolved to assist their countrymen in their efforts to regain their rights, commenced their collection on last Sunday, being fully convinced that England has neither the inclination to do them justice, or the competent knowledge of their local grievances to legislate for their advantage. You will please have me proposed as a member, and the following as associates.

Your Obedient Servant,

John Carroll.

18-8-1840

To Mr. Daniel O'Connell.

Carrigbeg, County Waterford, Aug 15th 1840.

Sir-As I consider it to be the bounden duty of every Irishman of every creed to give you a helping hand in forwarding the great measure of the repeal, I beg leave to enclose the subscriptions of 53 repealers, whose names I sub-join. If there is one town in Ireland which has suffered more than another from the effects of the legislative Union, that town is Carrick-on-Suir: and I can assure you that the people are feelingly alive to the injustice that has been done to them.

Wishing you many years of health and happiness, and expecting (although I am an old man) to see you take your seat in College-Green, I remain, Sir, Your's Patrick
M'Dermott.

The following are the names of the subscribers:-

26-11-1841 Emly.

From the patriotic parishioners of Emly, Co. Tipperary, per John Ryan. Esq. secretary, who observes that the present instalment of Repeal Rent is the result of the demonstration lately held in the part of Tipperary where the liveliest feelings of patriotism were evinced by the tens of thousands whom assembled to express their unqualified dissent to the act of Union.

The following are the names of the subscribers from Emly.

Rev. Patrick Heney, P.P.
Rev. John Fogarty, C.C.
Otho Heffernan,
