“Rev Walter Skehan Papers Vol 43 The papers of Rev Father Walter G Skehan 1905-1971 contain much genealogical information about various Irish families. He was parish priest of Loughmore and Castleiny Co Tipperary 1960 – 1971 and a keen family historian. He is buried in Loughmore Cemetery.”Kathleen Fanning

C. 1786, Walter Skehan (a), of Coolbawn married firstly Mary O’Dea (w-a).

Issue:- 3 Children:-

(1). John (aa), born 1787 = Mary Ryan? 1824. Said to have been implicated in a faction fight in which a man was murdered: given Coolbawn to his step-brother, Darby, and fled to U.S.A. He is believed to have been married and that his eldest child was named Walter. John Skehan (aa) was baptised on 3rd May 1787. But it must be noted that there is a John Skehan who died 18th May, 1804, aged 77, and is buried at St. Johnstown with other members of the family: but he however would be too old to be same person as above John, and is perhaps the father of Walter (a). John Skehan (aa) was married in Coolbawn and had family who went to America with him. ?Married C. 1824-5 Mary Ryan....

Issue:-

(c). Others?

Note:- according to his age on his tombstone in St. Johnstown, Walter Skehan, the husband of the Miss O'Deas, was born in 1759: but the Walter above, son of John and Mary Kennedy was born 1765 (Killenaule Register). In the Killenaule Register which dates back to 1742, there is no other Walter Skehan recorded as born in Killenaule – Moyglass parish who could be the husband of the Miss O'Deas. See complete list of all Skehans appearing in the old Register on p.p. 6-17.

Oldest known member of the Skehan Family:- Tomas Buide O'Scahan (i.e. Thomas Skehan, the blond). He lived around Killenaule area in 1548-1558. Horses belonging to him were stolen in both the years mentioned. St. Johnstown and Coolbawn, the ancestral homes of the Skehans, are both in the vicinity of Killenaule, in the County of Tipp.

Descendants of Wm. Skehan and Mgt. O'Donnell.

Old members of the family buried in family burial ground of St. Johnstown.

William Skehan (born c. 1689). Buried in St. Johnstown, 12-4-1761, aged 72 (Killenaule Reg.).

Honora Skehan (born c. 1692). Buried in St. Johnstown, 5-5-1752, aged 60 (Killenaule Reg.).

James Skehan (born c. 1732). Buried in St. Johnstown, 18-8-1763, aged 31 (aged 28 on tomb).

Elleanor Skehan (born c. 1726)? Buried in St. Johnstown 8-9-1766, aged 40 (?) (Killenaule Reg.)

John Skehan (born c. 1727). Buried in St. Johnstown, 19-5-1804, aged 77 (on tomb there).

William Skehan (born c. 1774). Buried in St. Johnstown, 11-3-1799, aged 25 (Killenaule Reg.).

Catherine Skehna (born c. 1783)? Buried in St. Johnstown, 28-8-1799, aged 16 (?) (Killenaule Reg.).

Issue of John Skehan and Maria Kennedy:- Maria, baptised, 20-1-1755: William, 29-5-1757: James and Patrick, 13-9-1759: Margaret, 21-8-1762: Walter, 1-2-1765: John 28-2-1767.

Against the Walter here being Walter Skehan (a):- (1). Age of death in 1842 given as 83 on tombstone, and ages rarely over estimated. (2). Age at marriage would be only 21 (or less), as eldest child, John, was born 1787. (3). (a). St. Johnstown inherited (he did not: his father lived in St. Johnstown). For his being Walter Skehan (a). (1) He is the only Walter from 1742 till then (1765) whose baptism is recorded, and Walter (a) could not have been born before 1742 as he would be 100 on or more at death. (2). Walter (a) obviously not an eldest son, as he is found in Coolbawn? And not ancestral home of St. Johnstown. (3). Tradition of calling eldest son after paternal grandfather: so Walter (a)'s father would be John. Notice also John Skehan and Maria Kennedy's eldest son, William, agreeing with reconstruction below.

James O'Donnell (a). He or his family is said to have come from Co. Donegal (this very doubtful), settled in Cahir, Co. Tipp. And later at Knockinglass, Fethard (Parish of Killenaule and Moyglass). He died 6-1-1810, aged 53, and is buried in Rathcoole, near Fethard.

All his daughters were small of stature, but were pretty girls, and were married to the 6 principle farmers in Parish of Killenaule and Moyglass. They with their 2 brothers are said to have 81 children all told: only 67 appear in Supplement No. 1, so it is likely that the others died young.

Descendants of Mary O'Donnell, 1st Child of James O'Donnell and Cath. Crihane.

Catherine O'Donnell (æ) (also spelled Dannell or Daniel), born Knockinglass, Fethard. Baptised 13-10-1800: sps:- David Power and Margaret Cuddihy. Died.....Married Michael Slattery of Knockbritt, Fethard (parish of Moyglass and Killenaule), a farmer, who later had a farm at Jossestown, Fethard, on 27th Nov. 1828. Wss. Wm. Skehan, Darby Skehan and Mgt. Daniel.

Michael Slattery, husband of Catherine O'Donnell (æ), was son of Wm. Slattery? Of Knockbritt who died 19th Nov. 1822 aged 68, and Honora Slattery (alias.....) who d. May 1837 aged 72 and other sons of theirs were Rd. Slattery of Jossestown (not the farm later held by his brother Michael), and Patk. Slattery who d. May 1827 aged 19. Michael Slattery who married Catherine O'Donnell (æ) lived at Knockbritt on a farm near Kerrick's Cross. He was evicted from this farm c.1840 by the Jacob's of Mobarnane, and then went as a tenant into Jossestown where some of his children were born. He took the farm at Ballybadin for his son, Patrick Slattery who married Mary Fitzgerald of Glengoole, and their son Willie succeeded in Ballybadin.

MI's. eldest son William Slattery, succeeded in Jossestown and died there unmarried in 1907: and left it to his sister Ellen Slattery who died 1936. She brought her nephew, Willie Slattery of Ballybadin (son of Patrick) to live in Jossestown; and he also took another farm in Jossestown adjoining Ellen's farm. As he had not the wherewith to pay for it, Ellen became his security for a loan from the bank. Willie Slattery eloped with Ellen's servant, Ellen Markley, in 1932, and died 1933 leaving a son Michael. Ellen Slattery died 1936 leaving two unsigned and so invalid wills: so all her property was divided among the children of her brothers and sisters. To meet the debt in the bank for which she was security for her nephew Willie Slattery, Willie's farms at Ballybadin and Jossestown were sold. Willie's Aunt, Maggie (Mrs Grace) sold her shop in Cashel to buy the Ballybadin farm where she was born, and at her death left it to her brother's (Willie's) son who sold it in 1954 soon after he came of age.
